

Oconomowoc Area Travelin' Troupe
invites you to join us at The Wisconsin Veterans Museum,
The Mustard Museum and Clasen's European Bakery

Thursday, March 21, 2024

The Wisconsin Veterans Museum exists to share and preserve the stories of all Wisconsin veterans. Beginning with the civil war regiments through veterans in recent service, our guided tour will explore what our service members did, how that work impacted themselves and their families, and how their service contributed to national and global security. Lunch will be at the Imperial Garden in Middleton. We will enjoy cashew chicken, Mongolian beef, sweet and sour shrimp, Imperial chicken and Singapore beef, all served family style. Enjoy some or all of the selections. Included will be an egg roll, steamed rice, a fortune cookie and tea, with additional beverages available at your expense. (A vegetarian meal is available if requested on registration form below.) Following lunch, we will be off to tour the Mustard Museum, home to the world's largest collection of mustard and mustard memorabilia with currently more than 6,700 mustards from all 50 states and more than 80 countries. Also on display are antique mustard pots, mustard tins, vintage mustard advertisements and assorted mustard memorabilia. Feel free to sample at the Tasting bar. A variety of mustards, chutneys, salsa, hot sauces, dessert toppings and preserves as well as apparel and accessories are available for purchase. Our final stop is at Clasen's European Bakery where you can browse at your leisure and sample treats. Since we are visiting prior to Easter, many of their Easter specialties should be available for sale.
